

Campus Redevelopment Update

Staff and students alike were delighted to see the progress on the campus redevelopment site upon return to school after the July school break. The Social Science block and the Mathematics block are well underway, and in addition, with the foundation work for the new toilet block completed over the holiday as well. While the fence will continue to make moving around the school somewhat problematic, the new buildings which are rising so rapidly are a great compensation for this temporary inconvenience.

John Rohs

PRINCIPAL